RACING AT MORRIS PARK.
ONE LIVELY INCIDENT IN A DULL DAY.

"LIKE" THOMPSON EXCITED OVER A DECISION
OF THE JUDGES—OTHER FEATURES OF THE CONTESTS.

The official judges at Morris Park were yesterday responsible for the only incident of a time day's racing. The programme, which included seven races, was made up entirely of over-night contests, and gave little promise in the way of sport, and to make matters worse, frequent scratching served to take out enough to reduce several of the fields to the smallest possible proportions. Under these conditions the crowd, which was a good one, was prepared to see the day pass quietly and peacefully, but the fifth race furnished a startling break to the calm.

W. C. Daly's colt Factotum was named to run in the fifth race, and his weight on the programme was 108 pounds. Before his rider had been announced on the official board it was discovered that he was in receipt of some allowances that he was not entitled to, and his owner at once ordered him scratched. When this was announced in the ring a number of bookmakers, of which "Like" Thompson was spokesman, demanded that he be declared off. This the judges refused to do, and Thompson appealed to John A. Morris, who seemed inclined to agree with the judges. Thompson, who is known to be of an excitable temperament, then began to abuse Mr. Morris, and at one time seemed disposed to carry the argument, and further limits. He was finally quieted and led away. Later in the day the matter was amicably settled, Mr. Thompson expressing regret that he had permitted his temper to get the better of him.

The judges at first insisted that all bets should stand, but when the horses were on their way to the post decided that all money bet on Factotum should be refunded. The fact that the colt's number had not been displayed officially as a starter clearly permitted them to declare bets off.

"Doc" Street's colt Galilee had little difficulty in capturing the first race. All of those that seemed to have a chance of beating him were withdrawn, and it was no surprise to see him an odds-on favorite. Talar rode him and he held the result safe throughout, but with the others until the front and at the end he was being eased up again, a length before Ormus, who beat Pirate Chief five lengths for the place.

The second race furnished some good betting, for while Mary Stone opened and closed the result, she was no better placed than Victorious and Illume, of whom there were carrying a stable commission. Whatever chance Illume might have had was killed by the start, for when the flag was dropped he was a dozen lengths behind the others. Fiddio, who was in with only eight and one-half pounds, went off at the start as a favorite, but never showed any sign of being a contender, and at the end of seven lengths he was in difficulties, and at the finish was second, Victorious beating him two lengths. Mary Stone was third, beaten only a neck by Fiddio.

The third race furnished the upset of the day. Roy Lochiel was backed as if he could not lose, and 3 to 5 and even 1 to 2 was accepted against him. His recent races certainly warranted such a result, but yesterday he was the most disappointing kind, the finish finding him fourth. The winner was Will Elliott. His owner backed him with a great deal of confidence, and after a good race Littlefield got him home a length before Derfargilla, who beat Anne Bishop. The latter was poorly handled, and with a better rider up would probably have won.

The fourth race was for maidens. Madras, Radiator and Golden Dawn were the only starters. Each had a following, with the last named the favorite. He and Radiator ran neck and neck throughout, the result being in doubt until the last stride, where the favorite won by a head. Madras was three lengths behind, and Radiator was a length behind. The fifth race, after a good contest, Discount won by a length; Fa Juive second, as far before Trinculo.

"Mike" Daly and a big party of the Guttenburg delegation were on hand to back Copyright for the sixth race, but they were disappointed, for the colt, who was expected to improve his position, and after a good finish won by a head. The Ironmaster, second, four lengths before Nero.

It was almost dark when the bugle sounded for the last race, so that little was seen of it until the field were well down the homestretch. Those provided with powerful glasses saw Minnehaha go to the head and lead until the finish. The finish was right at hand, where she did away in her usual style and Red Banner and the Ironmaster drove the better, and she won by a head. Sarah Ramsey beat Minnehaha three lengths.
